A Song from the Suds.

Queen of my sub, merrily sing
While the white foam rises high;
And sturdly wash and rinse, and wring,
And fasten the clothes to dry;
Then out in the free, fresh air they swing,
Under the summer sky.

I wish we could wash from our hearts and souls
The stains of the week sway;
And let water and sir, by their magic, make
Ourselves as pure as they;
There on the earth there would be joy indeed,
A glorious washing day!

Along the path of a useful life
Will the heart's ease ever bloom;
The busy mind has no time to think
Of sorrow, of care, or gloom;
An anxious thought say be swept away,
As we busity wield a broom.

I am glad a ta-k to me is given To labor at day by day;
For it brings me health and strength and hope,
And I cheerfully lean to say:
"Head you may think, Heart you may feel,
But Hand you shall work away."
